

Curriculum vitae

Peter Tiselius

Department of Biological and Environmental Sciences
University of Gothenburg
Kristineberg 566, 45178 FISKEBÄCKSKIL
phone +46-317869539 , fax +46-317863990
e-mail: peter.tiselius@bioenv.gu.se
Web page: <http://www.bioenv.gu.se/english/staff/peter-tiselius>
Birth date: 3 Dec 1958

PhD: 10 July 1990 in Zoology at University of Gothenburg. Dissertation: Foraging behaviour and grazing patterns of calanoid copepods. Advisors: Thomas Kiørboe, Rutger Rosenberg,

Post doc at Skidaway Institute of Oceanography, Savannah, GA, USA, funded by NFR, Nov. 1990-June 1992

Docent in zoology, University of Gothenburg, Dec. 1995

Present position: From Sept. 2004 I hold a Professorship in Marine Zooplankton Ecology at Department of Biological and Environmental Sciences, University of Gothenburg.

Previous positions:

Lecturer, Department of Marine Ecology, University of Gothenburg,	May 2000-June 2004
Head of Department,	July 2000-June 2003
Researcher	Dec. 1998-April 2000
Junior researcher	July 1992-Nov. 1998
Graduate studies:	July 1987-June 1990
Undergraduate studies: Nordic Council for Marine Biology fellow	Nov.1985-July 1986
Fulbright fellow at Stony Brook, NY, USA	Aug.1984-June 1985
Parental leave:	Aug.-Dec. 1994

Supervision of PhD students (*as co-advisor):

Student	Start	End	Degree	Topic
Lars Johan Hansson*	1991	1998	PhD	On the ecology of the jellyfish Aurelia aurita
Malin Werner*	1995	2001	PhD	Settlement, larval production and prevalence of the shore crab parasite Sacculina carcini Thompson 1836
Josefin Titelman	1997	2002	PhD	Zooplankton strategies for food encounter and predator avoidance
Fredrik Norén*	1998	2002	PhD	Factors regulating planktonic dinoflagellate populations, with special emphasis on the parasitic flagellate Parvilucifera infectans
Kajsa Tönnesson	1998	2005	PhD	Zooplankton—their role in the pelagic food web and in structuring the pelagic ecosystem
Maria Asplund*	2007	2013	PhD	Ecological aspects of marine Vibrio bacteria Exploring relationships to other organisms and a changing environment
Matilda Haraldsson*	2009	2013	PhD	Environmental drivers of gelatinous zooplankton distribution— Mnemiopsis in Swedish waters

Hosting of postdoctoral scientists:

Anne Sell, USA (1999-2000)
Peter Thor, Roskilde, Denmark (2000-2002)
Kazutaka Takahashi, Shiogama, Japan (2003-2005, 2013)
Danilo Calliari, Uruguay (2003-2004, 2006-2008)
Laura Rodriguez-Grana, Uruguay (2006-2008)
Macarena Valinas, Argentine (2012, 2013)

International collaboration:

William Peterson, USA, 1986
Thomas Kiørboe, Denmark, 1987–
Enric Saiz, Spain, 1990-1991, 1993, 1996, 2013–
Peter Verity, USA, 1990-1993
Torkel Gissel Nielsen, Denmark, 1992, 1999–
Benni Hansen, Denmark, 1991, 1996, 2005–

Stein Kaartvedt, Norway, 1996
Mike St. John, Denmark, 1999
Anya Waite, Australia, 2001
Cristian Vargas, Chile, 2004-2005

Other commissions:

Coordinator of the BONUS project BAZOOCA, 2008-2011, with a budget of € 2 million

Teaching and advising

Main supervision of 27 undergraduate students in 10 and 20-week projects

Organiser of two 7.5 hp. courses in Statistics and experimental design, course leader of the 15 hp course Ecology and Evolution and the 15 p. course Dynamics in natural populations, and responsible for the plankton sections in 15 hp course Biogeochemical cycles in the sea.

Publications

I have authored or co-authored 70 peer-reviewed papers.